

JOHNSON SIGNS THE LAND BILL

Act Will Go Into Effect in Ninety Days From Date

REQUEST OF PRESIDENT

Disregarded by the Califor- nia Governor—Movement to Submit Anti-Alien Land Act to a Ref- erendum.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Sacramento, Cal., May 19.—Governor Johnson signed today the alien land bill against which Japanese protests and which the California legislature passed by an overwhelming majority over the
remonstrances of President Wilson
and Secretary Bryan.

The act will go into effect 90
days from date or on August 17.
Governor Johnson, after signing
the bill gave out the following statement:

"I repeat what I have already
said, California for the first time
in its history has an anti-alien land law. Any man who wishes
any kind of law may consistently invoke the initiative. No man who really wishes an anti-alien
land law will sign a referendum as
to this law."

"If another law is sought it may be presented by means of the initiative and in the meantime the
present law will be in operation.
To tie up the present laws means
no law until November, 1914."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, May 19.—When Secretary Bryan heard through the news
dispatches that Governor Johnson had signed the bill, he went over to the executive offices for a short conference with President Wilson. When he came from the President's office Secretary Bryan announced that the formal reply of the United States to the Japanese protest would be delivered as soon as official notification of
the signing of the bill had been received.

Mr. Bryan expects a telegram from Governor Johnson.

Washington, D. C., May 19.—
The movement in California to submit the anti-alien land act to a referendum is understood to be viewed by the administration as affording further opportunity for diplomatic adjustment of the issues between the United States and Japanese.

It had been assumed here because
of the apparently overwhelming

Mill Hands Return to Work Escorted Through Picket Line by Police

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paterson, N. J., May 19.—Through
a lane of police two blocks long,
twenty hands formerly employed by
the silk mill of the Arthur Price
Company, went back to work today,
after a strike of more than two months. Hundreds of pickets of the Industrial Workers of the World
sought to prevent their return but
the police guard was too effective.
There was a lively scrimmage for a time and sixty pickets were arrested.

American Theatrical Man Gets Into Trouble In London Over Production of a Play

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, May 19.—J. Salter Hansen
the American theatrical man was brought up at Bow street police court today charged with threatening Arthur Bourcher, the English actor
and manager with violence. His case
was continued until Friday.
The attorney for the prosecution,
described Mr. Hansen as a man of
"very violent character."
The police testified that they had
to throw him to the ground in order
to search him.

ARSONITES HIRING WOMEN TO USE TORCH

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, May 19.—Confirmation of the hint that the militant suffragettes
are hiring women of the lower class
as members of their "arson squads"
was received this morning when Nellie E. Robinson, was arrested outside the famous New College chapel at Hampstead. The woman described herself
as a servant and said she was awaiting
the arrival of two suffragettes under
whose direction she was going to fire
the church. The police magistrate before whom the woman was charged
remarked that she "seemed to be in course of training as a professional
petroleum incendiary under miscre-
ants worse than herself."

MAY ABANDON OLD CUSTOM OF PAIRING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, May 19.—Tightening of the lines to put through President Wilson's nominations began today
when Democratic senators in caucus
practically decided that the old custom of pairing should be abandoned so far as executive sessions and consideration of appointments is concerned.
Democrats had great difficulty in retaining a quorum in executive sessions
but without pairs expect to keep enough senators present to conduct
the fight for confirmations of hundreds
of nominations pending.

President Wilson today told Chairman Lloyd and Secretary Page of the Democratic congressional committee
he was in hearty accord with plans
they outlined to him, for co-operation
of the congressional committee and Democratic national committee in the campaigns of 1914 and 1916. Messrs.
Lloyd and Page, after a conference
with Democratic senators probably will recommend to the congressional committee an expansion of its membership so as to embrace 39 representatives and 21 senators.

State Mine Inspectors Busy Today Investigating Death of Fifteen Miners

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Belle Valley, O., May 19.—State
mine inspectors today continued
their investigation into the cause of
the two explosions which wrecked
the interior of the Imperial mine
here, taking a toll of fifteen lives.
Today the mine was closed and
preparations were being made for fifteen funerals tomorrow.

As a result of the disaster twelve
women were made widows and forty-three children orphaned, by the loss of their bread winner.
It is expected that most of the families thus bereft, will require
help at once and steps are to be taken
to aid them.

Woman Died from Starvation in a Spacious but Squalid Home Filled With Costly Furniture

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Yonkers, N. Y., May 19.—In the spacious residence occupied by herself
and brother, on a fashionable residence street here, Ada Dunscomb, a middle aged spinster, was found dead
last night, a victim of starvation, according to Coroner Dunn. So far as the coroner could discover there was no food in the house. The authorities stepped into the case when a physician who Wynny Dunscomb, jr., 60
years old, the dead woman's brother,
had summoned, found Miss Duns-
comb dead on a couch in her bedroom, her body clad in mere rags,
and notified the coroner.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR AGREEMENT

Traction Officials and Representatives of the Union Are in Conference

RECEIVERSHIP HEARING

Postponed, All Indications Pointing to a Settlement Within Next 24 Hours —No Cars are Operating.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Cincinnati, O., May 19.—The tenth
day of the strike of the employees of the Cincinnati Traction company
brought definite indications that an agreement was a probability within the next 24 hours.

Both sides this morning united in asking Judge Geoghegan of the common pleas court to postpone action on the petition filed by the city of Cincinnati on Saturday asking for a receiver
for the company. They gave as their reason, that important conferences
were going on that might lead to a settlement and accordingly the court
postponed the hearing of argument
until tomorrow morning.

Immediately following this action
representatives of the traction company and the street car men's union
met and resumed their conference that started Sunday.

At noon they were still in closed session. No announcements were forthcoming other than the plain statement: "We are endeavoring to reach an agreement."

The representatives of the company
and the strikers discussed a basis of settlement all day yesterday and advanced until today. Just what was accomplished at the first meeting
could not be ascertained, except that progress had been made, and that the prospect of the strike being called off
had brightened.

No attempt was made today by the
traction company to operate cars.

ATTACKING VALIDITY OF INDICTMENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, O., May 19.—Arguments
were continued in the criminal court
today by attorneys representing former State Treasurer Isaac B. Cameron, who are attacking the validity
and sufficiency of the indictment against the former state official Attorney James M. Butler concluded his arguments and Attorney O. E. Harrison began his. It is probable that all of today and part of tomorrow will be taken in completing the arguments.

During the morning session Judge Kinkead halted the proceedings to inquire what assurances he had that whenever disposition of the case he makes will be effective. Attorney Smith Bennett in reply to this stated that the bill of particulars under which the questions of law are being submitted have been agreed upon by
the attorneys for the defense and
those for the state and they all have agreed to waive all error which might
result from the submission of the questions under the particular method being pursued.

Attorney O. E. Harrison argued in his statement to the court that there is no embezzlement or conversion in Ohio until the property converted is actually taken and not returned.

man Chris Reek was instantly killed,

ern was wrecked five miles south of

State Attorneys and Bankers In Clash Over Value of State Money

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Ohio, May 19.—A clash
today between attorneys for the state and local bankers as to the
banking value of the state money alleged to have been illicitly secured
from friendly state treasurers by the defunct Columbus Savings and Trust company, marked the close of the
taking of testimony in the long-
drawn-out case which has produced
varied sensations.

Paul A. Delong, former cashier of the new First National bank, contended on the stand before Master Commissioner Okey that banks can
make no profit on state funds borrowed at 3.75 percent.—the present
average rate under the depository
law.

State probers, headed by Attorney
H. J. Booth, who have contended
that the money was worth a higher rate of interest, asserted that the success of the bank with which Mr.
Delong was formerly associated, and
which is a large borrower from the state, proved their contention that
the rate is not too high for a profit.

Debate on the point developed
many spicy exchanges between the
banker and the attorney.

The banker had testified briefly
as to rates of interest current during the period when the wrecked bank
was handling large sums from the state treasury. He testified that an account like theirs, in which the money had to be secretly carried back

to the state house four times a year
"to fool the examiners," could not be regarded as a time deposit—and
was, therefore, not worth the rate of interest banks pay on time deposits.

The state is contending that the money during the years of the Cameron and McKinnon administrations
was practically undisturbed, because
of the fact that other banks involved
in the same procedure co-operated in raising the currency quarterly under
a "gentleman's agreement."

Under questioning by banks
counsel Barton Griffith, Mr. Delong testified that the new First National
was practically qualified for using
state funds at even a high rate of interest.

Oral arguments by the "prosecution" will be presented to the Master Commissioner Thursday afternoon by the state array of counsel
H. J. Booth and Robert W. McCoy
and Frank Davis, Jr. Attorney Barton Griffith representing the bank
and Attorney Smith Bennett, representing President I. B. Cameron, will file written briefs a week later, and
on June 3, the case will go to the commissioner for his ruling as to the amount of interest due the state.
The case has run for three months,
with testimony covering more than 2,000 typewritten pages.

HEAVY FINE IS IMPOSED ON MRS. MANGELS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Tronton, N. J., May 19.—Judge
Cross, in the United States district
court today imposed a fine of $2,000
on Mrs. Agnes Mangels, of San Francisco, who is alleged to have landed
on May 12 from the steamer Ameri-ka at Hoboken, N. J., without declaring a proper value of goods
brought by her from abroad.

Mrs. Mangels entered a plea of non vult.
Her counsel pleaded with the court
to extend mercy and not impose a prison sentence.

The value of the goods brought into the country was estimated by
the federal customs appraisers at about $5,500 of which $1,800 was declared. It was stated to the court
that restitution to the value of sixty
percent of the goods had been made
to the customs officers.

Miss Agnes Tillman, a niece of Mrs. Mangels, was also cited to appear because of alleged improper declaration of goods and jewels, but charges against here were withdrawn. Miss Tillman agreed to pay
the duty for the full value of her
property.

SWITCHMEN IN CONVENTION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

day with one thousand delegates and visitors in attendance. St. Louis, Denver and Buffalo are candidates
for host to the next convention.

Rear Admiral Twining, Whose Plans Were Stolen

The theft of the wiring plans of the dreadnought Pennsylvania from
the ordinance bureau of the navy department, which has set official Washington by the ears, were drawn
under the supervision of Rear Admiral Nathan C. Twining, chief of the bureau. Should congress or either house hold an inquiry he will become one of the chief witnesses.

The first set of plans was missed
March 5, having been taken the night of the inauguration of President Wilson. The remainder disappeared later.

Naval officials have not said if
their suspicions centered on any one,
and detectives have been unable to get a clue of the thief. The first statement of the department that the theft was of no consequence has been somewhat discounted. It has been learned since that the plans showed
the entire wiring of the big vessel
and that an opposing battleship commander having them in his possession would not find it difficult to dis-
able her.

CALLED OUT "GOOD BYE" TO GUNMEN

"Happy Jack" Electro- cuted at Sing Sing Early Today

WORE SMILE TO CHAIR

Won Sixty Day Reprieve from Governor by Declar- ing That He Was Going to His Death as a Criminal Martyr.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Ossining, N. Y., May 19.—John Mulraney, who was to have been put
to death as a murderer on March 17,
but won a sixty-day reprieve by declaring in a personal appeal to the governor that he was going to his death as the martyr of a criminal,
was electrocuted at Sing Sing prison
early today. "Happy Jack," as he was known to his comrades were to
the last the smile that had won his nickname and called back to the
other inmates of the cell a cheerful
"good-bye."

Chas. Becker, the former New York police lieutenant, and the gun-
men involved with him in the Rosenthal murder were among the fourteen
who answered.

The murder of which "Happy
Jack" was convicted was that of Patrick McBreen, known as "Paddy the Priest," a New York saloonkeeper
was shot while standing behind his bar on the night of October 3, 1911.

John J. Dowling, who fled before he could be tried and Mulraney both signed confessions to the murder but
in the death house Mulraney repudiated his admissions, claimed an alibi
and asserted he had accepted the
conviction following a "crooks" code
of honor not to squeal on the other fellow. Justice Rosalski of New York, decided, however, that there were no grounds for a new trial.

WOOSTER MAN OFFERED PLACE ON AG. BOARD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, O., May 19.—According to state house gossip, C. G. Williams, of Wooster, has been offered the two-
year term on the new state agricultural commission, which was created by the recent general assembly.

It has been intimated that when offered the position by Governor Cox, or
at least when approached on the matter, he refused because of the short tenure of office. Governor Cox has neither confirmed nor denied the gossip.

LARGE CLASS FOR BAR EXAMINATION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, May 19.—One of the largest classes that ever took a state
bar examination will appear before the state examining board June 17 and 18,
according to Frank McKean, clerk of the supreme court today. Two hundred and fifty law students have qualified. Last year there were 236 in the class.

Many Important Questions Will be Settled This Week at Presbyterian Assembly

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Atlanta, Ga., May 19.—Reproduction
in Atlanta today of a story in a New York newspaper charging that the election of John T. Stone of Chicago,
as moderator of the Northern Presbyterian general assembly, was the result of a "deep laid political scheme,"
threw that assembly into a turmoil of excitement.

Dr. Stone himself took the floor. He said he had not seen the publication,
and begged that the article be over-
looked as an "error in judgment."

William T. Ellis of Pennsylvania,
who considered Stone's nomination,
denounced the story as untrue.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Atlanta, Ga., May 19.—Commissioners to all the assemblies of
the big branches of Presbyterianism
resumed their work today, with indications that the present week's labors would develop some of the most important actions yet taken in the matter of committee reports and
the settlement of many questions
brought up in overtures from a country wide constituency.

In the Northern assembly the proceedings today were featured by
the publication of majority and minority reports by the committee appointed to consider differences between the church and the Union

Theological seminary of New York City. Since all the relations of the institutions and the church which founded it were broken off because
of the allied heretical beliefs of the members of the seminaries faculty,
it has been expected by some Presbyterian laymen that an amicable
adjustment mutually beneficial
might be arranged, and to this view
the majority of the committee
agreed, asking for another year's time. In two minority reports, however, the task is regarded as hopeless.

Dr. Frank C. Monforte, of Cincinnati, submitted a minority report in which he declared that the members
of the faculty of the Union Theological seminary had failed to answer
important questions regarding their belief and that the answers they had
given indicated that they had no
right to be recognized as orthodox Presbyterians.

The Northern Presbyterian general assembly today unanimously
adopted a resolution authorizing the transmission of proposals for an organic union to the supreme judica-
tory of all the Presbyterian churches
in America. The resolution is contained in the report of the special committee on church co-operation and union.

Shackling of Progress

(By Chalmers L. Pancoast.)

Those who are opposed to boosting remind me of the statesmen of China who for centuries kept its millions in darkness, while today with the progressive spirit aroused, China is the most benign nation in the world.

Any opposition to pushing Newark forward is of the sort
that shackles and throttles progress, and if given a chance,
would effectually stab the city to death for all time to come.

Therefore it is a dangerous attitude not to boost all the time

OPENING OF BUCKEYE LAKE
PARK SUNDAY ATTRACTS BIG CROWD TO POPULAR RESORT

Propitious weather, with enough warm sunshine to make boating and a bit of bathing not out of season, attracted thousands of people to Buckeye Lake park Sunday, to attend the formal opening of the "Atlantic City of Central Ohio," for the 1913 season. The unusual list of attractions was available to patrons. Commencing with the early morning hours the cars from both eastward and westerly directions on the Ohio Electric railway were crowded with merry-makers and picnickers determined to avoid the rush, but the rush continued all day, nevertheless. Families with lunch baskets, fishing outfits and what not poured into the park grounds from all along the route of the electric line while motor cars from Newark, Columbus and several other Central Ohio points made the borders of the park resemble an annual auto show. When Old Sol brushed up and made his appearance on the scene Sunday morning, concessionaries, who had been speculating for weeks on the weather, while they prepared for opening of the park and neighboring resorts, sat up and took notice with a smile of satisfaction which broadened into a real grin of delight as the early cars began bearing their heavy loads of merry-makers. And, according to the management, there wasn't a disappointed concessionaire on the park grounds, for Sunday's crowd appeared to be composed of generous spenders. Car service was good. The Harris opened with a splendid array of new conveniences and accommodations which were taken advantage of by a goodly number of first day visitors, while apartments have been engaged by others far in advance on the summer's calendar. The dining room did a rushing business and the dance hall took on an aspect of refreshed gaiety while Parker's colored musicians dispensed the latest melodies for dancers. Boating was a much favored pastime all day long. The Del Plisner line boats, fresh and newly rigged for the season, carried hundreds of passengers in all directions over the lake to near and distant points, all day and evening. The neighboring resorts were well patronized and there was such a throng on hand that the park proper did not suffer from the steady travel to other attractive places along the lake shores. Rather, the crowds flocked into the park in the afternoon and evening to make the opening event a gala one. Despite the fact that summer heat did not prevail all day a steady cool breeze made wraps comfortable. There was a few who ventured a dip in the water. The bathers were not numerous, but the few had the satisfaction of initiating the bathing beach, which promises to be a big attraction this year. The other concessions, in general amusement lines had plenty to do. Hotels near the park were well occupied, and many cottagers put in their appearance, although cool weather has caused lake summer residents to delay their departure for the resort until warmth makes the open living more agreeable. Band concerts all day and evening proved a big attraction for the park visitors. Classic and popular numbers kept the crowds astir with enthusiasm, as an excellent organization in uniform made an effort to please. Judging from the big attendance on the opening day, with the advent of warm summer weather, it is believed that the present season will outclass several years past in point of patronage to the popular resort. Not only from Newark, but from Columbus and entire Central Ohio.

Two Great Box Performers

Eddie Plank seems to improve with age, for at 38 he is pitching better ball than ever before in his career. Frank Chance, after batting against Plank, recently declared he was the best southpaw that he ever faced. Last season, Plank won 26 and lost 6 games with a team that finished third, while Maryland won 26 and lost 11 with a pennant winner. Still, there were no 100-per-cent vandevilles offered waiting for Eddie and it was just as well, as he would undoubtedly have turned them down. No white lights for him, but back to his Gettysburg farm.

ZANESVILLE IS WALLOPED AGAIN
BY NEWARK HIGH

Newark High handed Zanesville another decisive defeat Saturday at Zanesville by the score of 16 to 3. Christman's pitching was responsible for the splendid victory. The Newark squad played splendid ball after the second inning. The first two frames were necessary for the bunch to get properly warmed up. With a three run lead in the fourth, the Newark boys struck their stride in the following inning and a healthy rally netted four runs. Eight hits in the sixth brought four more. Zanesville's scoring machine was kept inactive for the first five innings. They managed to score one run in each of the next three innings but were retired scoreless in the ninth. This game gives Newark an average of .500 with third place in the standing of Central Ohio High school teams. Two more games remain on the schedule, one with Mt. Vernon and one with Doane Academy, both games to be played Sunday.

Should both of these games result in victories, Newark would tie with Mt. Vernon, making a three game tie between these two teams necessary. The score:

Jennings has picked up several promising young pitchers in Hall, Houser, Chausse and Klawitter to bolster up the Detroit twirling staff. Mark Hall is about the best of the lot. He comes from Omaha in Western League, where he had a peach of a record, 25 won and 9 lost. He has won several games for the Tigers so far this year and has his job in the majors clinched, as long as he keeps up his present gait.

WESLEYAN WINS
IN 10 INNINGS
FROM DENISON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Delaware, May 19.—Rallying in the final half of the team, after Denison had broken a 1 to 1 tie in the first half of the extra frame, Ohio Wesleyan administered the first conference team defeat of the season to the Baptists here Saturday afternoon, 7 to 6. The Methodists played an uphill game almost to the close, when the horseshoe took a sudden shift of position and gave the local players a victory that was particularly pleasing in view of the defeats administered in both football and basketball this year by the Granville team. Fears of the visiting aggregation led Coach Banks to again order Semmes, who pitched Friday against Ohio State, to the mound. Score: Wesleyan, 7; Denison, 6. Innings: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10. Denison: Semmes and Little, Schwegman and Barrer. Umpire—Mason.

COLLEGE RESULTS.
Wesleyan 7, Denison 6.
Wisconsin 5, Northwestern 2.
Yale 4, Holy Cross 2. 13 innings.

WILL STAMP OUT
ROWDY TACTICS
ON BALL FIELD

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, May 19.—President Edward Barrow intends to stamp out rowdy tactics on the ball fields of the International league. Today he indefinitely suspended first baseman Swacina of the Newark club for his argument with Umpire Hayes in Newark yesterday. Mr. Barrow says that Swacina may also be fined if an investigation of the trouble should warrant it. Manager Smith, of Newark and S. H. Merriam, the third baseman of the same club, were fined $50 each for trouble in a game at Rochester on Saturday. Manager Smith and Merriam will draw fines and suspensions says President Barrow, if they engage in further disorderly tactics during a game.

SUFFRAGISTS ARE
AFTER BALL FANS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Philadelphia, May 19.—The woman suffragists will begin a campaign to convert the baseball "fans" to their cause. Permission has just been given the suffrage workers to invade the parks of both the American and National leagues. The campaign will start with the distribution of a pamphlet, entitled "Woman suffrage from the standpoint of a baseball fan."

CHALLENGE ISSUED
BY THE PIRATES

The Pirates, a team of young men of East Newark, challenge any Newark team made up of boys 16 years old or under. Acceptance of the challenge may be telephoned to Edward Ryan, 287 Eastern avenue.

FIFTEEN STRAIGHTS
FOR YALE TEAM

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Boston, Mass., May 19.—The work of the Yale baseball team with its fifteen straight victories continues the feature of the season among the college nines of the East. "The best blue team in years," as enthusiastic supporters proclaim, has set a record for consecutive victories in intercollegiate competition. Yale has an unquestioned lead for the unofficial championship. Brown, regarded as Yale's most serious contender for championship honors, will meet the blue again this week. A close contest is in prospect, with Brown striving to retrieve a previous defeat.

AMUSEMENTS

Strong List of Photoplays at Auditorium This Week.

Manager Johnson of the Auditorium announces an exceedingly strong list of photoplays for his popular theatre this week and included in the program are some late feature releases. Tonight, "The Rosary," an exceptionally beautiful Rex drama. Another clever picture is "The Bewitched Matches." Tomorrow afternoon only brings that world famed artist, Miss Helen Gardner in "Eureka," a story of a memory that slept in two pasts. There will only be afternoon performances of this photoplay on account of the Moose Minstrels in the evening. Wednesday's feature will be "The Indian's Secret," a two part drama by Lincoln J. Carter. On Thursday a huge drama fantasy entitled "The Sons of a Soldier," a three reel picture that takes you back to the crime days of the American Revolution and leads you through the troublesome days of the war of the Rebellion and finally into a purely imaginative period when the country finds itself forced into a bitter conflict with the Japanese. On Friday a two part Rex feature "The Smuggler's Daughter" will be offered and on Saturday "The Unknown," a Victor drama and "Bozo Arrived."

Auditorium Yesterday.
A temperance drama in three interesting parts entitled "An Accursed Inheritance" was the magnet that backed the big Auditorium theatre to the doors yesterday afternoon and last night. Newark is one of the first cities in Ohio to see this celebrated film, as it was only recently released and had been shown in no other city but Cleveland. Manager Johnson is to be commended for his enterprise in securing this great educational feature. The new orchestra with Mrs. Grace Cranston at the piano furnished an entirely new repertoire of excellent music and made the entertainment complete in every detail.

MOOSE MINSTREL
THE BEST EVER
TOMORROW NIGHT

The Moose Minstrel, Tuesday evening is a feature that every loyal Newark citizen and member of the Moose lodge of this city is looking forward to with much interest and enthusiasm. This minstrel is being put on principally by members of the Zanesville lodge out of appreciation of the splendid efforts and assistance rendered to that city by Newark. We bespeak for this performance one of the largest audiences ever before seen here, not only because the cause is a most worthy one, but also because never has it been the good fortune of any local lodge to secure such talent as in this present instance. Such a performance has been planned that it will be a matter of much pride to this lodge. In asking your friends to attend or buy tickets, you do so with the absolute assurance that they are truly getting their money's worth. Here are a few of the principal features: Win Griffith, well known minstrel and circus man, who is staging the production; Bert Ungemach, musical director; Henry Steum, well known Elk and Moose, late of Al. G. Fields minstrels, whose original monologue is one of the funniest ever heard in minstrelsy; Ilen, Pell, well known baritone soloist; Harry Feasley, acrobatic dancer; Tom A. Scott, interactor, well known Elk and Moose and acting president of City Council; Ed Underhill, well known Eagle and Moose, and nun; Frank Armstrong and S. H. Hogan, dictator of Zanesville Lodge of Moose, and well known Modern Woodman. The Great Garrison, juggler and hoop roller, of Newark will be one of the features of the olio.

OLD TIMERS
HELD BOUT IN COUNTY JAIL

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
San Rafael, Calif., May 19.—John (Jack) Mills and Paddy (Kid) Williams, derelicts of the prize ring met in the county jail here yesterday and harking back in argument to a four round draw five years ago, agreed to hold an immediate return bout. Referee, timekeeper and seconds were chosen from their fellow prisoners. Lacking gloves, they went at it with bare knuckles, stripped and barefooted. The bout had reached the sixth round and the men were bleeding and groggy when the court house janitor heard the uproar and descended on the ring, armed with a mop. Again the decision was a draw. Mills is serving a year for shooting and Williams six months for vagrancy. Mills is a negro.

KANSAS MOTORCYCLE PATROL

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Topeka, Kansas, May 19.—There will be 1,570 riders in the Kansas motorcycle patrol according to plans completed today. Kansas will be the first state to have a motorcycle patrol in every county. The members receive no pay. Each one must be a member of the Federation of American motorcyclists.

NEWARK PROOF

Should Convince Every Newark Reader.

The frank statement of a neighbor, telling the merits of a remedy, bids you pause and believe. The same endorsement. By some stranger far away Commands no belief at all. Here's a Newark case. A Newark citizen testifies. Read and be convinced. C. L. Starr, harness maker, 89 Hancock street, Newark, Ohio, says: "I can speak highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and I am glad to confirm the testimonial I gave in 1904, recommending them. My kidneys were weak and the passages of the secretions were too frequent and often painful. My back pained me when I lifted and it was hard to straighten after stooping. I tried different medicines but was not benefited until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at A. F. Crayton & Co.'s drug store. They completely relieved me." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other. 13

WOODROW WILSON
and the SHORT BALLOT

II. How Wilson Organized the Short Ballot Movement

Woodrow Wilson

Up to 1910 Mr. Wilson's doctrine of simplified, responsible government had only been extensively discussed in intellectual circles. Every serious writer on American government sooner or later had deplored the practice of electing a multitude of officers. But none of them had suggested any constructive remedies. No attempt had been made to convince the great American public of their folly; the people were considered hopelessly wedded to the notion that electing a multitude of officers is the very essence of democracy.

In July, 1909, an article by Richard S. Childs had appeared in one of the weekly magazines in which the evils of the elective system and the obvious remedy was discussed under the title of "The Short Ballot." This supplied the necessary catch-word which is always necessary to make an idea "go." In the popular sense, later on, the author, with Mr. Wilson and several well known editors, called a Short Ballot Conference which banqueted at the Hotel Astor in New York city on January 21, 1910.

At this meeting Mr. Wilson explained that the object of the organization was to gain the adherence of as many men of influence as possible, of whatever party, and to interest those actually in charge of administration, so that they might aid by their practical knowledge of affairs and their influence with the legislative bodies. "Above all," he said, "we should seek to make the principles we have in mind the subject of constant discussion. It is not a campaign of education we have in mind, but a campaign of information."

On the problem itself he said in part:—"The methods by which we have sought to establish popular control really destroy it. We have sought to make every office, great and small, elective. We have defined the duties and powers of each office by statute and we have nowhere united the offices thus set up in any coherent, interdependent system. Each officer has derived his authority from particular legislation and his office directly from the people. He has, therefore, been in no legal sense subordinate to any other officer, has owed obedience to no one except those who elected him, has been obliged to co-operate with no one except those with whom the statute upon which he stood commanded him to co-operate. It has been a system of executive action laid apart in complete analysis, and each item of the analyzed structure made independent of the rest..... If the great multitude of minor and petty offices were taken out of the elective list and were transformed into appointive offices, if the people were called upon to choose only those who ought under any reasonable system to be in responsible charge of the administration of government, many interesting results would follow. In the first place, it would be a most desirable and businesslike reorganization of the government itself, because it would give it administrative cohesion and a systematic relation of parts, unity and efficiency. What is much more important, it would be the re-establishment of popular control, because it would make it possible for the people to exercise a direct and intelligent control over the nomination and election of the central authoritative officers."

The immediate outcome of this occasion was the founding of the Short Ballot Organization, of which Mr. Wilson was elected, and remains, president. It was he who drew up the vital section in its constitution and its platform. The campaign for simplified government to which Mr. Wilson has lent the aid of his great personal prestige will be treated in the next article.

MANY STATES MOVE TOWARD SHORT BALLOT.

In the lower house of the North Dakota Legislature Representative Snyder has introduced a measure which would apply the Short Ballot to the State government. By the provisions of this, the Governor's term of office would be extended from two to four years, and he would have the appointment of a Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioner of Insurance, three Commissioners of Railroads, and Attorney General and one Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor.

The Human Procession

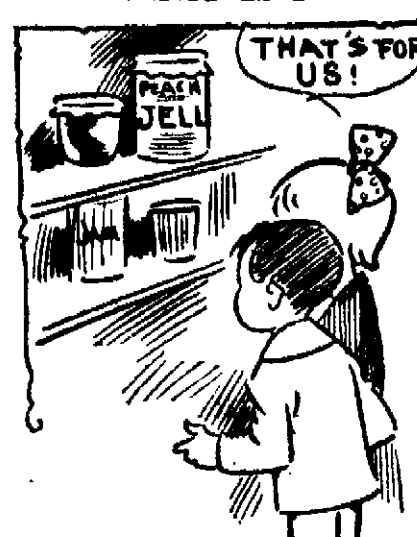

All that goes up must come down, according to the law of nature and Isaac Newton, but, as has often been observed, there are exceptions to all rules, and this one is often reversed when those who go down to the sea in ships encounter stormy and turbulent seas. This bit of information is suggested by the fact that the subject of this brief biographical sketch recently made a tour abroad, interviewing the crowned monarchs of Europe and other personages, for the entertainment and instruction of over two million readers weekly. Whether or not he proved the exception to the rule above set forth, and paid tribute to Neptune, is not to be ascertained from the available sources of information. Anyway, it makes no difference. The sole purpose of these persiflage remarks is to achieve a splashy introduction, and to place the editor, who insists that one blunt out the whole story in the first paragraph, so that he may blue pencil the remainder. Who first buried defiance into the molars of a tyrant city editor by writing his copy in such a way that the salient facts were carefully concealed until the psychological point for their development was reached cannot be known. Some give the credit to Demon Ruyana, the youthful star among baseball scribblers, and it is certainly true that Mr. Ruyana can accomplish wonders in hiding, concealing, covering, screening and otherwise withholding the final score of a pastime.

Quite incidentally, it may be mentioned that Samuel George Blythe is a native of Geneva, N. Y., and will celebrate today the forty-fifth anniversary of his birth in that village. After a brief apprenticeship as a reporter, he became the managing editor of a metropolitan daily at the tender age of twenty-five, when he took the helm of the Buffalo Express. He was not yet thirty when he became editor-in-chief of the Buffalo Courier and Enquirer, and to peace he retired. For a time he was managing editor of the Cosmopolitan Magazine, and then went to Washington as correspondent of the New York World. He joined the Saturday Evening Post staff six years ago, and is now as indispensable to that journal as Ty Cobb is to the Detroit Tigers.

Mrs. Nellie Melba, the Australian song bird, will be the recipient of birthday congratulations today. Mme. Melba was born in Melbourne, Australia, of a Scotch father and a Spanish mother, on the nineteenth of May, 1863 or 1865, or 1866—the authorities differ as to the year. Her father's name was Mitchell, and she was christened Helen Potter, but, on beginning her operatic career, she adopted the name of Melba in honor of her native city. In her present season at Covent Garden, Mme. Melba celebrates the twenty-fifth anniversary of her first appearance on the London stage. Louis W. Hill, son of the great railroad builder, passes his forty-first milestone today, having been born in St. Paul on May 19, 1872. Mr. Hill is the able son of a distinguished father, and has played a large part in the development of the Northwest.

IN MOTHER'S MEDICINE CHEST are standard remedies which have stood the test of time—remedies which their mothers and grandmothers had used before them, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly forty years has been curing the women of this country from the worst form of female ills; merit alone could have stood such a test of time and won such an enviable record.

WHAT IS IT?

What kind of disposition?
Answer to Saturday's puzzle—Doughnut.

Wisdom from Washington

Washington, May 19.—[Special.]—The senate will be permitted considerable latitude in amending the tariff bill without provoking much opposition by those who drafted the measure. "The senate has a right to its say as well as ourselves," said Chairman Underwood. "But if they undertake to make the bill in Democratic we will go to the country before we will submit. There may be changes which the senate will find necessary and which we will agree to when they are pointed out. There are some classifications that may need changing, but there will be no radical changes accepted by the house."

Sugar and Wool.

Whether Underwood means that no duty shall be placed upon sugar and wool is not stated, but he, no doubt, will regard a tariff on those articles as "radical" changes from the bill as it passed the house. At least President Wilson will so consider them, and there is no doubt that the majority of the Democrats in the house will agree with him.

"Those sugar and wool fellows may make us some trouble," remarked one of the shrewd Democratic members, "but there is an indication that they will go into a Democratic caucus and do a lot of talking, put up a very strong fight and finally consent to being tied up to a caucus decision in favor of free wool and free sugar as provided in the Underwood bill. Some of them are willing to be throttled in caucus."

That furnishes a way out. Let the caucus decide and the Democrats who represent wool and sugar states can stand with their party.

Naming the Committees.

Democratic members of the house have been keeping in close touch with Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee, particularly those who have no assurance of good committee assignments. They also interview Champ Clark, for the speaker is not without influence, although he does not name the committees.

All the big chairmanships have been provided for, as well as the best places on the most important committees. These go by rank and promotion. The pressure for positions comes from the better members, who want something better than a nonworking committee. "They won't be satisfied with a toothpick," said Congressman Shackelford of Missouri. "They don't want to be handed a toothpick and told to go into the cloakrooms and pick their teeth and come out and vote when the roll is called."

A Tariff Uncertainty.

Those Democratic senators who are against free wool and free sugar have an uncertainty to meet in the attitude of several Republican and Progressive senators. There are several of these who think that the products in their states have been so hard hit in the Underwood bill that they will not help the sugar and wool men unless they get something in return.

And so the Democrats who are standing out may find that after they have counted noses on their side and can change the schedules with all the Republican and Progressive votes they will be unable to secure all those votes in favor of a duty on wool and sugar.

Chandler Rings the Bell.

Congressman Chandler, Progressive, of New York City made a hit the first day of the session by the sense of humor he displayed. When he made his tariff speech he scored again for the very same reason.

"I know little about the tariff," he began; "but, strange to say, though a modest and retiring man, I have suffered no embarrassment whatever from any private conversation on the subject I have had with other members. My excuse for speaking at all upon the tariff is the justification of Colonel Ingersoll for discussing immortality of the soul. He said that where nobody knew everybody had a right to guess."

"Now, after listening to tariff discussions for weeks, I have some very positive convictions, with few reservations. I know perfectly well the Democrats are wrong. I also know

WILL VISIT NEWARK WEDNESDAY, MAY 20.

It is probable that committees will be announced Tuesday by the Newark Board of Trade to receive members of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce on their thirteenth annual trade extension tour. The Pittsburgh party will stop in Newark from 7:45 until 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, arriving from Cochocton on the Pennsylvania lines and continuing from here to Trinway, where the train will leave the Pennsylvania road for two days. The Pittsburghers usually come from one to two score strong, and every year they include Newark in their trade extension itinerary. This year they will be out from May 20 until May 24, inclusive, coming as far west as Columbus. They will travel in a solid steel train consisting of four 16-sectional sleepers, one apartment observation car, a steel combination car and two steel diners. The train will be electric lighted, and equipped with local and long distance telephones to be connected at stops along the route. Several of the cars are ordered specially equipped by the Pennsylvania company for the trip. The Pennsylvania company's expert electrician-inspector will accompany the train.

JOHNSON SIGNS

(Continued from page 1.) sentiment in California in favor of Japanese exclusion from land owning, there might be difficulty in securing the 20,000 signatures necessary to invoke the referendum. Now, however, that the exclusion element itself or rather its most radical opponent, the Asiatic Exclusion League, has taken up the movement, the probability of its success has greatly increased, in the official judgment.

The Japanese government is not expected to approve that method of dealing with its protest, though probably it will be difficult for the Tokyo foreign office to find technical grounds for objection to the method in which California is attempting to legislate. Officials here feel that Japan regards this as the best time to permanently settle the question, and that it will contemplate with impatience a delay of at least a year and a half, even though in the interim the proposed law was not applied to the Japanese in California. White House officials today decided that no reply would be made to the Japanese protest until after Governor Johnson actually signs the Webb bill. It was reiterated that the exchanges with Japanese Ambassador Chinda had been of the most friendly and cordial nature.

POLICE CAPTURE THE "MYSTERIOUS" BLONDE WOMAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, May 18.—Margaret Kennedy, known under a number of aliases who was taken into custody here last night with Isadore Goldstein, an alleged pickpocket, was identified by the police today as the mysterious blonde woman seen in the offices of Joseph H. Logue, a jewel merchant, a short time before he was found dead in his office in the McKiver's theatre building. The murder was one of the most mysterious in the records of the police. A blonde woman was the last visitor at Logue's office before the crime was discovered. Stephen Durkin, who was the jeweler's office boy, said the woman called about 11 o'clock on the day of the murder and tried to sell watches to him. An hour later he was found murdered. Durkin was positive in identifying the Kennedy woman.

Obituary

MRS. J. L. GILPATRICK.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Flackwood Gilpatrick, widow of Dr. J. L. Gilpatrick, formerly dean of the faculty of Denison University occurred at her home in College Hill, Granville on Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

With the demise of Mrs. Gilpatrick Granville loses one of its best loved women. Mrs. Gilpatrick came to Granville thirty-six years ago as the bride of Dr. Gilpatrick, who held the chair of mathematics. She was born in South Lyon, Mich., and at her death was 64 years old. Mrs. Gilpatrick has continued her residence in Granville for thirty-six years and was a member of the Baptist church. She was one of the most active, prominent and popular of its members and was for many years president of the Ladies' Social union. Also prominent in literary circles, she held the presidency of the Fortnightly club.

In her home life as well as in the church Mrs. Gilpatrick's life was ideal. Her home was the center for the gathering of the students of the college and her friends. The only near surviving relative is one daughter, Miss Ray Gilpatrick, who is an instructor in the Steele high school at Dayton, Ohio.

The death of Mrs. Gilpatrick came as a surprise. While she was a sufferer from heart trouble, her serious illness extended over only two weeks. Mrs. Gilpatrick never recovered from the great shock of the sudden death of her husband about a year ago.

The funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Baptist church, Rev. C. J. Baldwin officiating. Burial will be made in Maple Grove cemetery.

INSURGENTS CONTRACT FOR AN AEROPLANE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Nogales, Ariz., May 19.—The projected attack by Sonora state troops on Guaymas may take the form of a land, marine and air battle, made possible by the crossing into Mexico during last night of a complete aeroplane. A special train from the direction of Naco and bearing the machine arrived at Nogales, Sonora, today and was hurried south. The Mexican gunboat Guerrero lies in the harbor ready to assist the federal garrison.

After the confiscation of his aeroplane below Tucson, Didier Masson, a French aviator, escaped into Mexico and since has been awaiting the second machine. It is said the machine which crossed last night is the second of five contracted for by the insurgents.

CHATS WITH
THINKING WOMEN
by Barbara Boyd

Home Life and a Career

I DON'T see why women can't love and career too. Men do," the woman was saying, and there was a hint of bitterness in her tone. The speaker should have heard Madame Nordica on this very subject, and perhaps she would not have felt so rebellious.

For, many talented women there are, who crave not only the expression of the talent they feel within them, but also home and love and all these mean. But as the world was today, they feel they must choose between them, that to have one they must give up the other. And it is like cutting themselves in twain and living only half a life. And they rebel. They feel this should not be asked of them.

But Madame Nordica says it isn't. She declares that home life and motherhood need not prohibit a woman's career. "I see no reason for the unfounded statement that a woman cannot pursue an artistic career and have a home and family life," she is quoted as saying.

And she goes on to show how the higher development of women really is of value to home and children.

Hundreds of women there are, however, who will shake their heads at this and say it is impossible. Though Madame Nordica points to the hardest of artistic careers, that of the grand opera singer or actress and cites in support of her theory the children of Madame Schumann-Heink, and Louise Homer's happy family, including the twins; also the Faversham boys and Madame Gadski's lovely daughter, many will contend these were exceptional women and that they were thus able to accomplish exceptional results.

But when you get right down to the real facts of the matter, what is it that bars women from combining home life and a career?

Isn't it that our idea of home life is that it is mainly a matter of housekeeping—of providing food, of mending clothes, of keeping the house clean, of looking after the children's material welfare. Not only do many women think this, but nearly all men do. And as the following of a career would mean the neglect of these things, a career and home life seem incompatible for women.

But the women who have accomplished these two have turned over the providing of food, the care of the house, the washing and dressing of children to those competent to do it. They have said, "I will have a beautiful, and a comfortable and a happy home," but they have given the details of making it over to those trained for the work. As mothers they have given their children mental and spiritual companionship and inspiration; but they have not filled their own days with the washing and dressing of the children and the combing of their hair. And so these women have been able both to career and love.

This may not be practicable yet for all women. But it should be. Eating and drinking and dressing and sleeping are the best worth-while things we do. Yet, as many of us live today, they are our principal occupation. The more we relegate them to the background, to be cared for by those best fitted to attend to them, the freer will we be to give our time and attention to the higher and finer things of life. For that there are higher and finer things, no one will gainsay.

And if the time has not yet come when we can freely express the inner voice of ours that cries for expression, then let us do what we can to hasten the day when women can both love and career, when husband and children nor home will suffer because a woman expresses her own individuality in whatever way she may wish to do so.

COFFEE

are most interesting (see letter in southeast corner)

If the subject appeals to you, try leaving off coffee and tea entirely, use Instant Postum and carefully note, day by day, the return to health and strength.

A level teaspoonful of Instant Postum in an ordinary cup of hot water dissolves instantly and makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more, and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular (must be boiled).

Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in cup of hot water.

Pastor Russell Says Satan is Father of Lies

QUOTES JESUS' ASSERTION.

The First Lie—Where It Was Told. Why It Was Told—To Whom It Was Told—Its Result—Its Repetition—The Disastrous Results to Humanity—All Manner of Crimes Are Its Fruitage. The Only Remedy—Why?—When?—How?

Harrisburg, Pa., May 18.—Pastor Russell's address today on Satan's great lie was a remarkable one in several ways. He really told his audience that they had all been believing Satan's lie. And he really told spirit mediums that they were the mediums, not between dead and living humans, but between humans and demons—the fallen angels. And yet the Pastor said all this in a kindly, sympathetic manner that surely none could take offense. Evidently no offense was intended, but merely the presentation of what the speaker assuredly believes to be the teaching of the Bible.

He opened his address by noting the fact that the common conception respecting Satan's appearance and whereabouts is wholly false, built not upon the Bible, but upon human tradition, human imagination, handed down from a darker day. The Pastor believes in a real, personal Satan, and believes him to be Beelzebub, the prince of demons. In other words, he believes the Bible to teach that Satan is an angel of higher rank than ordinary angels and possessed of superior powers. Hence he outranks those who are with him, and perforce is their leader, or prince.

That Satan is not in some far-off place with his fallen angels, torturing millions of the human family in furnaces, the Pastor made very clear. He showed that nothing of the kind is taught in the Scriptures. On the contrary, they teach that Satan and his host, since the Deluge, are under restraint, confined to Tartarus, our earth's atmosphere. They cannot wander around the universe, as before. Satan is very literally, therefore, "the prince of the power of the air," and his associate demons are members of this aerial, or spirit power, malevolent as respects everything that is of God and righteousness, and especially the foes, therefore, of such of humanity as renounce the works of the flesh and the Devil, and seek to walk in the footsteps of Jesus.

The Lie and Where Told.

The lie was told in Eden. The serpent was used as Satan's tool. Satan himself was originally the only rebel. His associates, the fallen angels, were not with him in his rebellion until some time afterward. The Pastor would not say that the serpent could not speak under a satanic impulse or obsession or hypnosis, but he inclined to believe that the serpent spoke by its actions. He quoted the proverb which declares that "Actions speak louder than words." He thought that this was probably the way in which the serpent spoke to Mother Eve.

God had forbidden our first parents to eat of a certain kind of fruit in the Garden, without telling them why. It was simply a test of their obedience, their loyalty to Him. He told them that disobedience, disloyalty, in this matter would result in their death. He said nothing about eternal torment. The wilful sinner, according to the Bible, is to die, to perish as a natural brute beast. God's favors are for only those who will abide in His Love. "The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

The serpent, by eating of the forbidden fruit without dying, but on the contrary being the wisest of all the beasts, seemed to give the lie to God's word. Through the serpent Satan declared to the woman, "Ye shall not surely die." Through the serpent, Satan also told Mother Eve that God evidently was trying to keep herself and her husband in ignorance, blindness, darkness; and that it was time for them to awake, to assert their rights, and to make the best of themselves, by eating of the forbidden fruit. Father Adam knew better, but when he found that his dear wife had eaten and thus had come under the sentence, or curse, of death, he was so discouraged that he determined to die with his wife, loving her so much that he would rather die with her than live without her.

Satan's object in telling this lie, in deceiving our first parents, was made very clear by the Pastor. From other Scriptures he pointed out that Satan for some time had been saying in his heart that he would like to have and to exercise still higher powers than those which he possessed. He would like to be "as the Most High." He would be a sovereign, who might work out his own plans. He had no thought of supplanting the Almighty, but had the pride to suppose that he could manage the universe better than God could; and that if he had a small section under his control, he would demonstrate this and put the Almighty to the blush.

When man was created, Satan's opportunity for exercising his ambition seemed to have come. Man possessed a power which the angels had not. He could propagate his own kind, and was commissioned to fill the earth with a population and to bring it to Edenic perfection. Satan saw his chance. By capturing the first pair and making them his subjects and alienating them from the Almighty, he would capture a race, and eventually be the spiritual prince, or ruler, of this world. It was to carry out this program that he deceived our first parents and started his great lie.

Satan's Plans Changed.

When Satan perceived that his subjects were perishing and becoming imbecile, mentally and physically, he thought to circumvent the Divine penalty by introducing fresh vigor, life, into the human family. This he did by seducing some of the angels. Originally angels apparently had the power of materialization—of taking human form or any other form that they might choose. Satan's program deflected some of these from their loyalty to God and to their nature, and induced them to materialize and live as human beings and rear human families, by taking human wives.

The Pastor pointed out the Scripture which described this defection of the angels. This, he said, must have progressed for centuries, according to the Bible account. The angelic "sons of God" saw the daughters of men that they were fair, and they took unto themselves wives of all that they chose. There were born unto them children, "men of renown," intellectually, and giants physically. The virility of the angels grafted upon the human stock, produced a race in some respects superior, but in others very inferior. Begotten and born in opposition to the Divine will and in a rebellious attitude of heart, these giants were brutish, devilish.

Soon the earth was filled with violence. The impaired race of Adam, enslaved mentally and physically, were rapidly being demonized also. So far as the record goes, only Noah and his family, were of pure Adamic stock and loyal to God. Then the time came for the Deluge, which God had foreknown, and had withheld until this time. In it God swept away both the progeny of the angels and the impaired Adamic stock. None of those who received their life-principle from the angels were of Adamic stock. None of them, therefore, have any share in the redemptive work of Jesus, and hence none of them will have any part in the resurrection and restitution, which God has promised shall be accomplished by the glorious Messiah during the thousand years of His Messianic Kingdom. They merely perished—were blotted out in the Deluge as natural brute beasts, as St. Peter declares of all wilful sinners of Adam's race—2 Peter 2:12.

Satan, Thwarted, Tries Again.

"The angels which kept not their first estate"—who followed the leadership of Satan—were cast to Tartarus—our earth's atmosphere—and there are restrained for a time that they may not roam throughout the universe. (Jude 6.) They are restrained also for a time from materializing in human form—Satan likewise. Thus Satan's plan for empire failed. But still rebellious in spirit, he took up a new line of battle against God. He would be content to use humanity as his tools, even though they were imperfect and dying. They should be his slaves, and he would embitter them against God, and defeat God's plans on behalf of humanity.

Satan realized that the secret of his power with mankind must lie in his deception of it. If men knew that they were being led captive into sin at the will of Satan and his fallen hosts, they would rebel against him. In order to hold humanity as far as possible his slaves, he realized that he must seduce them by fostering ignorance and superstition. He must alienate them from God. Therefore he caused them to think of God as a terrible being, unworthy of their love and confidence, one whom they might fear, but could not worship in spirit and in truth. As a basis for this great scheme of human enslavement and obsession, Satan used his original lie. For now four thousand years he has sought by every means in his power to instill that lie into the minds of all humanity in every land. He has his demon host to cooperate with him in making light appear darkness, and darkness appear light, to deceive mankind. How wonderfully he has succeeded the whole world is witness today. Notwithstanding the fact that man's five senses tell him that the dead are dead, the masses believe to the contrary—that the dead are more alive than before they died. Notwithstanding the consistency of God's Word, "Thou shalt surely die," and the inconsistency of Satan's lie, "Ye shall not surely die," the whole world is enslaved by Satan's lie. The Pastor declared that the Book of the Revelation pictures the condition of the world, in declaring that all nations will be made drunk with the wine of false doctrine.

Spiritism, Obsession, Possession.

While we must acknowledge that some spirit mediums are merely frauds, said the Pastor, we have every reason to believe that many of them are very sincere, but deceived. Many of them thoroughly believe that they communicate with the dead. Only the Bible can save any one from that delusion. It alone shows us that a demon host is co-operating with Satan, to prove his lie and to enslave mankind and to separate them from the truth of God's Word.

Witches, wizards and necromancers were forbidden in the land of Israel; and yet there were some there, and influenced such as were not fully in harmony with God. King Saul, we remember, sought the witch of Endor. The demons made certain things appear on the retina of the witch's eye. She described what she saw to King Saul. He recognized it as a description of the Prophet Samuel. The witch also communicated to Saul what purported to be the word of Samuel, and what was really the word of demons.—1 Chronicles 10:13.

Satan's lie is still potent in the world, hindering millions from the knowledge of God and the appreciation of His Word. Frequently the spirits get such control of the minds and bodies of those who yield their wills, that they not only suffer obsession, but sometimes become absolutely possessed by these demons. Under such circumstances, they are generally considered to be insane, although doctors know that many of these have no mental disease, but are controlled by outside influence.

The Pastor urged all to accept the testimony of God's Word—that death is the penalty for sin; that the death of Jesus is the Redemption-price from the curse of death, and that the resurrection of the dead, the raising up again to perfection of life, is the salvation of the Bible. Not only would this help us to come nearer to God, through a better understanding of the Bible, but it would help to free us from the various snares of the Adversary.

Furthermore, he found in the Bible intimations that in the very near future these evil spirits would be permitted to break over their restraints, and that all not properly fortified by the truth on the subject would be liable to be specially ensnared by Satan's lie. He would not prophesy what this trouble would be, nor just how it would come, but he did forewarn his hearers. He urged all to come out from the influence of Satan and his slanders of the Almighty and his misrepresentations of facts, and to enlist under the banner of Jesus as servants of truth and righteousness.

Satan the Father of Lies.

Jesus declared Satan to be the Father of lies. This corroborates the thought that never until Satan started the course of sin was there any need for lies. All of God's dealings with the angels and their dealings with each other have been along the lines of simplicity, truth, purity, holiness. The first use for a lie was when Satan determined to exalt himself as the god of earth. It was to alienate our first parents from the Almighty that Satan lied to them, assuring them that disobedience to God would not bring the death penalty that God had declared. Ever since then, sin, abounding, has given temptation to misrepresentations, bearing false witness, etc.

Selfishness was the foundation for the first lie. And selfishness continues to invite falsehood, even amongst those who see clearly how despicable falsehood is. And each falsehood seems to call for another to help justify it, and to cover up the selfishness which prompted it. No wonder the Apostle urges those who become Christians to put away lying, saying, "Lie not one to another." As Satan stands as the Father of lies, so God, on the contrary, stands as the Father of Truth.

Our Lord not only said that Satan is the Father of lies, but intimated that the lying spirit is of Satan, saying to some of those who opposed the Truth, Ye are of your father, the Devil, if his works ye do. "He was a murderer from the beginning and abode not in the Truth" (John 8:44). On the contrary, God, the Father of Lights and the Father of the Truth, is the person-

MANY PEOPLE GOING TO THE BIG CIRCUS

Barnum & Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth is Attracting Thousands
With Many New Features.

The Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth is attracting unusual interest this season with its wonderful program of European novelties, its re-built parade, its complete menagerie, and its recently added $500,000 wordless spectacle of "Cleopatra," all of which will be seen in Columbus, on Monday, May 26.

The parade, which takes place at 10 o'clock in the morning is three miles in length. In the menagerie will be found the only baby giraffe on exhibition anywhere on earth. The wordless spectacle of "Cleopatra" is produced on the biggest stage ever devoted to an open air amusement. It is erected in the main tent of the show. There is a cast of 1,250 characters, a grand opera chorus of 400 voices, an orchestra of 100 musicians, a ballet of 350 dancing girls, 650 horses, five herds of elephants, caravans of camels, and an entire trainload of special scenery, costumes and stage effects.

Among the many European novelties on the regular program which follows the spectacle, are Miss Bird Millman, the dandified high wire artist, and novelty feats by a company of Japanese warriors and jin jitsu experts, Winston's riding and juggling seals, the Herr Koenig's troupe of statue-building, dancing and jumping horses, a brass band of stallions, Berzac's mule and monkey circus, the Siegrist-Silben family of high air vaulters and somersaulters, Mae Wirth, the greatest bareback and somersault rider in the world; The Five Baltons, world's greatest strong men and women; Victoria and George's strong arm dancers, Les Jardy and Les Deko families of acrobats, five herds of trained elephants, and the fifty funniest clowns in the world.

The Barnum and Bailey circus travels on a train more than a mile in length, covers fourteen acres of ground, and has nearly 1,500 employees, 700 horses, nearly two-thirds of the elephants in America, 110 cages in the menagerie and over 2,000 wagons and other vehicles.

The two performances that will be given in Columbus will be exactly the same as those presented at Madison Square Garden, New York, where the season was opened in March. The great spectacle was said to be the most notable dramatic event in the history of amusements in that city, while the circus proper was credited with being the best ever given there.

Jack Britton, Who Has Frightened Two Champions

Jack Britton, the Chicago lightweight, who has beaten every one he met in the ring in the last year, except Packey McFarland, and his manager Dan Morgan, have been trying for months to get either Willie Hitchie, the American lightweight champion, and Freddy Welsh, the British lightweight champion, into the ring with him. Neither will listen.

Walsh was in New York for some time after his return with the English title and Britton went after him. A club in that city offered him $5000 to meet Britton and he slipped away to fight a lemon in Canada. Hitchie is very busy with vaudeville work. His latest statement on the subject is to the effect that Leach Cross of New York is entitled to a fight, but Britton doesn't figure. When it is considered that Britton beat Cross easily the kind of reasoning the champion employing may be understood.

"I think Britton can beat Luther McCarty," said Dan Morgan, his manager. "That sounds queer doesn't it. Well, McCarty would never touch him. He would outpoint the alleged white champion in ten rounds. He knows so much more."

BAPTISTS TO ENTER SOCIAL SERVICE WORK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. Louis, May 19.—The Southern Baptist convention before final adjournment shortly after noon today decided to enter social service work and appoint a committee of seven for that purpose, which will co-operate with the committee from the Northern Baptist convention already engaged in this work.

A. J. Dickinson said the Baptists could not afford longer to keep out of social service work.

Since the enactment of federal laws preventing women being transported from one state to another for immoral purposes, he said, the social evil has become a local question.

Rev. Samuel Zane Patton of Philadelphia, secretary of the social service commission of the Northern Baptist convention, urged the co-operation of the Southern Baptists in the work.

Rev. A. J. Barton of Dallas, Texas, reported for the temperance committee that the passage of the Webb bill by the national congress was the greatest victory for temperance in a half century.

Rev. W. T. Amiger of Louisville, Ky., president of the State University of Louisville, a school for negroes, addressed the convention, saying the blacks wished the strongest possible bonds of helpfulness sympathy.

The convention went on record as favoring the endorsement of a seminary in Louisville to train negro preachers and appointed a committee of seven to work out the details.

MEN DEMAND INCREASE OF 25 PER CENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, May 19.—The strike of the 60 employees of the Paragon Refining company, of Hillsburg, Sandusky county, is still on, according to D. H. Sullivan, secretary of the state board of arbitration, who returned today from that place after an effort to effect a settlement. The men demand a twenty-five per cent a month increase but, according to Mr. Sullivan, the company, whose main office is in Toledo, says it is unable to grant the increase at this time.

Mr. Sullivan said he expected to go to Cincinnati late today or tomorrow to make further effort to effect an arbitration between the striking street car employees and the Cincinnati Traction company. He said he would urge the company to withdraw its objections to the men organizing. "The men have a right to organize if they want to," said Mr. Sullivan.

PROPOSE AN AMENDMENT TO TARIFF BILL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, May 19.—An amendment to the tariff bill introduced today by Senator Kenyon proposed that, when any corporation or concern was adjudged a monopoly its products should automatically go on the free list.

Mr. Kenyon has hope that the finance committee may favorably consider the amendment, but if not he will press it on the floor. The proposal has almost unlimited possibilities for overturning schedules.

The question of whether products of concerns organized since the Supreme court held them to be monopolies might still be under monopolistic control, also would enter into the application of the law, should the Kenyon amendment be incorporated. Subcommittees of the finance committee plan to meet every day this week to consider the wool, cotton, sugar and chemical schedules of the tariff bill. On all these manufacturers are here pleading to be heard against the rates of the Underwood bill.

Chairman Simms has called a meeting of the entire finance committee for tomorrow. A set of questions of manufacturers has been proposed by Senator LaFollette, are to be sent out.

TRIAL OF ALLEGED CONSPIRATORS IS STARTED TODAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Boston, May 19.—William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen company, and a textile manufacturer of international reputation, Frederick A. Atteaux and Dennis J. Collins, were placed on trial today charged with conspiring to "plant" dynamite at Lawrence during the textile strike in that city in January 1912.

The trial has been awaited with special interest because of the prominence of Mr. Wood and also by the fact that it is the first time in Massachusetts that a serious criminal charge arising from labor difficulties has been preferred against a manufacturer. The indictment and arrest of the mill man last August caused a sensation.

Atteaux is a dealer of chemicals and a friend of Mr. Wood. Collins is a dog fancier of Cambridge. It is charged that the three defendants conspired with John J. Breen an undertaker of Lawrence and Ernest R. Pittman, a builder of Andover, to place dynamite in a house occupied by striking textile operatives for the purpose of prejudicing public opinion by making it appear that the strikers had possession of an explosive which they intended to use in damaging mill property. The police discovered the dynamite and arrested several strike operatives who lived in the house. All subsequently satisfied the court of their innocence and were discharged.

Soon afterward Breen, a member of the Lawrence school board, was arrested, convicted and fined $500 for "planting" the explosive. Pittman who built the wool mill of the American Woolen company, committed suicide on the day the Suffolk county grand jury began investigation of the alleged conspiracy.

REPORTS OF ASSESSORS ARE FILED

Old Dobbin's booked for a reasonably long service in Licking county even yet. Automobiles haven't out-classed the horse in point of usefulness even though it may have him backed up when it comes to speed. Such are the gleanings from the monthly report of county assessors, which are now being filed with County Auditor Riley.

In Granville township and school district, which is said to be a fair standard for comparison, there are 553 horses valued at $53,100. The number of horses probably will show some increase in the total county returns, while the valuations are likely to remain about the same as last year. The reason for this is that assessors are instructed to list all horses, including those upon which no value is placed because of age, etc.

Besides the report of W. H. Litten of Granville township and special school district, and of Frank Welsh for Granville village, reports have been filed from the following township assessors:

Burlington, John Patton; Hope-

well, M. T. Porter; Liberty, Charles

G. Barrick; Dennington, G. N. Mc-

Etiquette of the Flag.

In view of the approach of Decoration day, when soldiers in particular and patriotic citizens in general are turning their attentions to preparations for observing the day, more than ordinary consideration may justly be given the government rules and etiquette of the flag.

The government observation of flag rules on Memorial day, is no less impressive than etiquette shown by West Point cadets even after a winning sporting event when they invariably make known their delight by saluting the flag and cheering for Uncle Sam's army.

On Memorial day the flag is properly displayed at half mast from sunrise until noon. At noon the band is assembled, and while the salute of twenty-one guns is fired the band plays a dirge. At the end of the ceremony the flag is hoisted to the mast-head until sunset.

Don't Stay Gray! Sage Tea Darkens Hair Beautifully

Restores Its Lustre, Prevents Scalp Itching, Dandruff
and Falling Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. While it is a messy, tedious task it well repays those whose hair is turning gray, faded and streaked.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold. Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use.

This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and the thing known to remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Every body chooses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time which requires but a few moments. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair has disappeared and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. It certainly helps folks look years younger and twice as attractive, says a well-known downtown druggist. Hall's drug store, 10 North Side Square, agent.

CUT GASH IN HAND BY BAD FALL SUNDAY

Mrs. T. J. Egan, of 245 Buckingham street, suffered a bad fall and cut a deep gash in her right hand on Sunday morning at her home.

About 9 o'clock Mrs. Egan was out in the yard when she tripped and fell. In falling she threw out her hand to break the fall and hit it on a broken bottle. The glass penetrated the palm of the right hand to a great depth and the wound bled profusely.

Dr. W. S. Turner was called and it was found necessary to take three stitches in the wound. Mrs. Egan, while she suffered a great loss of blood, is resting comfortably today.

CUBS SEND OUT EIGHT SCOUTS IN HUNT FOR PITCHERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, May 19.—Eight scouts today began a systematic search of minor leagues for pitchers for the Chicago Nationals. Practically the entire country will be scoured to strengthen the staff, to whose weakness the poor showing of the team on its eastern trip is partly attributed. Murphy himself left today for Boston and he denied he expected to land a pitcher there, he admitted that a promising twirler in the International league was under consideration.

PEN CONVICTS HAVE GRIEVANCE AND 20 STRIKE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, May 19.—A meeting involving a large number of convicts in the Ohio penitentiary was discovered early today when about twenty prisoners employed in the prison state shops struck and refused to go back to their bench. Warden Thomas had issued an order to tear down a series of box-like lockers, which are used by the prisoners in storing extra clothing and various other articles and trinkets.

This made the basis of the meeting. The strike, however, only lasted for a brief period.

The men were marched to the deputy warden's office, where Warden Thomas, acting as arbitrator, explained why the lockers were being taken out and told the men of the danger of fire as the lockers were constructed entirely of wood.

Out of twenty, fifteen agreed to go back to work. The remaining five, however, absolutely refused to resume their duties unless they were provided with lockers. The warden then ordered that they be placed in solitary confinement. One of the ring leaders of the strike was George McGahn, Columbus hold-up man, who is serving

GOVERNMENT ASKS HEALTH OFFICERS TO STOP MILK WASTE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, D. C., May 19.—With the approach of summer, when large quantities of milk are condemned and destroyed in cities throughout the country the agricultural department today issued an appeal to Health inspectors to stop the waste and, after denaturing the condemned product, return it to farms to be fed to live stock. By this method the department's experts are convinced of considerable saving in the cost of raising beef and pork. The department advocates the use of rennet which will transform milk into thick curds. The cost of the rennet is small, being a fraction over three cents for a 10-gallon can. In connection with the appeal the department gives the results of experiments with rennet giving the temperature at which the powder works most quickly and effectively.

Hand Shrinking From Paralysis

PARALYTIC STROKE MAKES HAND USELESS EVEN FOR SIMPLEST TASK.

CASE PRONOUNCED HOPELESS.

United Doctors Relieve Condition Almost Instantly—Now Uses His Hand.

Paralysis, practically the most dreaded of all human ailments or diseases has proven rarely curable.

Due to blood poison, excessive indulgence in alcohol, exposure, injury, and a multitude of other causes, paralysis may occur in either sex at any age. Many forms of paralysis heretofore considered incurable have been found to yield to several recently discovered methods of treatment.

The United Doctors, who have their Newark institute on the second floor of the Arcade building, have obtained truly astonishing results by their non-surgical methods of treating this dread condition. Mr. John L. Stickle, a retired farmer, residing at number 38 Arcade building, Newark, Ohio, the latest to receive the benefits of the "United" treatment of the United Doctors has much cause to be thankful for the recent discoveries made in the treatment of this affliction.

In January of this year Mr. Stickle had a stroke of paralysis which affected his right arm and hand. In a very short time his hand was so useless as to make even holding a cup impossible. One day while trying to lift a cup to his lips he dropped it; still unbelieving he tried twice more, each time dropping the cup, and finally gave up in despair. He consulted physician after physician, some told him his trouble was one thing and some another but none of them gave him any hope and not a single one of them benefited him.

"I went to the United Doctors and showed my hand to the physician in charge, who told me where he thought the trouble was located and though somewhat skeptical I told him to do his best for me. He gave me a treatment at that time and within one hour I felt an improvement and a decided change from that moment. My fingers grew warmer and I had some feeling in the hand and got so I could partially separate the fingers and now (May 10th) just two weeks time since I started with the United Doctors I am able to use my hand and arm almost as well as ever I could. I can lift considerable weight and in a trial test today I was able to lift almost as much as a man in good health. My improvement is rapid and the muscles in my hand, which had commenced already to shrink, are again having their natural color and feeling of warmth."

"I am so well pleased with the wonderful help that the United Doctors have given me that I wish them all success and hope this statement brings many other sufferers to them for treatment."

CHURCH FILLED AT SERVICES IN HONOR OF "DAD"

"Dear Old Dad" has at last come into his own. This busy old world has been whirling round some thousands of years and no one has even hesitated long enough to give dad any consideration whatever.

A few years ago, a Philadelphia woman succeeded in making the world pause long enough to give honor to the mothers, but no one gave any thought to the fathers.

It remained for Rev. Don Tullis of the Second Presbyterian church here to give dad a look-in. Rev. Mr. Tullis is a dad, and without discounting the honor and glory due mother, he insisted that fathers should have their mummies and they did.

Special services for fathers were featured at both the morning and evening service Sunday. "Father has been neglected so long," said Mr. Tullis at the morning service, "that I can't do him justice in one service, so I'll start this morning."

At the evening service, the auditorium of the Second church was packed. The center section of seats was reserved for the fathers. A committee of the men in the church was on duty at the entrance and "dad" was buttonholed as he came in the door, segregated in the basement until 200 or more of the species had assembled. They were tagged with a small white ribbon with the word "dad" printed in red ink.

While the great organ played the procession of fathers entered the auditorium in a body and filed into the center seats.

A special program of music, rendered entirely by men, had been arranged of solos, male quartets, choruses, with a special offertory and a cornet duet with organ accompaniment.

Rev. Mr. Tullis took for his text a portion of the ninth verse of the third chapter of Genesis, "And God called unto Adam and said, where art thou?"

Mr. Tullis explained that the men decorated the pulpit unassisted. They provided their own bouquets and arranged the musical program.

Mr. Tullis delivered a splendid sermon on the text, a strong plea for the influence of Christian fathers. He urged a higher standard of Christian manhood in relation to the home life, business life and moral questions which confront every city. He urged the men not to allow their vision to become obscured by the money madness.

Following the close of the sermon, carnations were presented to each of the fathers in the audience. A large bouquet of lilies was distributed through the audience to those who had fathers at home and unable to attend the service. A bouquet of red peonies was given to the members of the chorus who volunteered their services to make the musical program a success.

Third Anniversary of Discovery of Blonde Eskimos

Few ethnological discoveries of modern times has aroused so much interest and controversy as Vilhjalmur Stefansson's revelation in regard to found three years ago Saturday, May 17, 1910, while on his second expedition to the Arctic regions. Since the announcement of his find by the young Canadian-Scandinavian explorer, scientists have evolved many theories as to the origin of the strange people of the Northland. Perhaps the favorite surmise is that the tribe is descended from the Norse colony founded by Eric the Red, which disappeared from Greenland in the Fifteenth century. Others have suggested that the ancestors of the blonde Eskimos came over from Asia at a time when that continent was connected with America. Again it has been suggested that they are Irish, descendants of hardy Hibernian explorers who, according to legend, settled in Ireland and crossed to America long before Columbus made his immortal visit to these shores. Mr. Stefansson, being an Icelandic of Scandinavian descent, naturally inclines toward the theory that the tribe he discovered is of Icelandic descent, although, as a scientist, patient and conscientious, he proposes to attempt the solution of this and other problems by another northern expedition. On his next trip Mr. Stefansson will be accompanied by two eminent anthropologists, whose ethnic investigations will probably shed much light on the origins of the northern tribes.

Many attempts have been made to settle the originality and value of Mr. Stefansson's discoveries, and it is alleged that the "blonde Eskimos" were known to other explorers long before the young Canadian explorer was born, in a pioneer settlement on Lake Winnipeg, Manitoba, in 1879. The Rt. Rev. Joseph Elie Bretnat, Roman Catholic Bishop of Macleod, N. W. T., is authority for the statement that an English explorer, Colvinton by name, announced the discovery some sixty years ago of a tribe of Eskimos whose features resembled those of white men.

Additional testimony that Stefansson was not the Columbus of the blonde Eskimos is given in what purports to be a passage from a book entitled "A Geological and Historical Grammar," written by Thomas Salmon, and published in 1770. This passage is quoted as follows:

"The Indians (of the Hudson's Bay Company settlement) are of the usual stature of other men and of a tawny complexion. In the north of Esquimaux there is a race much whiter, coming from the southern Indians, and are supposed to come from Greenland."

All of which may or may not be true—and yet the fact that the Chinese discovered the art of printing in the sixth century B. C. does not lessen the fame and honors due to John Gutenberg and other European pioneers in the typographic art.

CLASS RECEIVES SACRAMENT OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST

The large seating capacity of St. Francis de Sales church was taxed on Sunday morning at the seven o'clock mass by the relatives and friends of the large class which received the Sacrament of Holy Communion for the first time.

A beautiful spectacle was presented when 196 small children, led by their instructor, Rev. Father Ryan, marched up the center aisle. The girls were clad in pure white with long veils of white tulle and wreaths of lilies of the valley. The first pews of the center section were reserved for the class while the remainder of the section was given over to the parents. The mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Father O'Boylan, who also administered the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. The sacrament was administered in the sanctuary.

The altars were beautifully decorated in white and green. Great ropes of smilax, and myriads of white lilies and carnations were used and hundreds of waxen tapers added to the beauty of the whole. The sight was both edifying and impressive.

Rev. Father O'Boylan gave a short address to the class, which aside from the children also contained a number of adults.

A special musical program was furnished by the senior choir with the organist, Miss Carrie Brennan. Mrs.

Fenwick Ewing sang a beautiful solo number.

The administering of First Communion is an annual ceremony in the church and the large class has had weeks of earnest instruction and preparation by Father Ryan.

WERE CHARGED WITH MUSSING UP CENTRAL PARK

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, May 19.—Determination to turn New York's famous Central Park from what has been one of the dirtiest to one of the cleanest parks in the country has seized the responsible authorities with such force that over 150 persons were hauled to court yesterday and last night charged with mussing up the park. In view of the fact that the park had been given in posters on circus bill size, appealing to the common sense of the crowds to save the city an annual cost of tens of thousands of dollars in cleaning up rubbards, the magistrates imposed fines upon most of the offenders, and one young man who had walked across the grass with a girl was locked up over night as a penalty for his disorderly conduct.
